Copco Smart Gadgets Silicone Scraping Whisk Receives
2010 HFN Award of Excellence

Woodridge, Ill. – (April 2010) - Wilton Enterprises is proud to announce its Copco division's Smart Gadgets™ Silicone Scraping Whisk as the winner of the 2010 Home Furnishing News (HFN) Award of Excellence. The Copco whisk features a combined flat whisk and silicone scraper, acting as a two-in-one whisk and spatula for quick mixing. Its silicone scraping edge conforms to the shape of bowls or pans to allow for complete blending of ingredients, while the wire component of its flat whisk can be used for incorporating sauces/gravies or powdered sauce packets into noodle or rice dishes.

The Copco Smart Gadgets™ Silicone Scraping Whisk was among a multitude of other products showcased at the 2010 International Home and Housewares Show, and was evaluated and selected by HFN editors as the winner in the Kitchen Tools category! The HFN editors select products for this prestigious award by judging the appeal, quality, and attraction of the new product. The announcement of the award will be made in the May issue of HFN.

The Copco Smart Gadgets™ Silicone Scraping Whisk is available for $9.99 and can be found at a variety of national and online retailers.
